Dear Gino,
No problem.
Everybody's got to live together!

Good luck.

Learnings : general

- * Understand EU intentions
- * Don't do it for the money primarily
- * Enjoy the process of being able to develop your sport independently
- * Do not overthink but just go for it
- * Start small
- * From one thing comes another : new contacts, new experiences, new know how ...

Learnings : selection and collaboration with partners

- * Diversity : combine small big entities and e.g. connect an academic partner
- * Engagement or expertise as first criteria?
- * Ask partners to define stand-ins so you have a back up solution
- * Formal confirmations (letter of intent)
- * Involve partners in project description
- * Think of EU Brussels team, COV and others as partners as well
- * Repeat way of working and lead by example
- * Understand/learn about the team dynamics
- * Nothing ever goes according to plan so manage yr energy and enjoy the ride

All be best with your applications!

It's worth to gain experiences with these funding opportunities to grow your sport
