After the specified period of time, the documents containing your personal data will, according to the DZS records retention schedule, either be transferred to the State National Archives or will be irreversibly destroyed on all media.

Any personal data that we hold only on the basis of your consent to its processing will be retained until you notify us that you withdraw your consent or until the reason for its collection has ceased, whichever occurs sooner.

5. Your rights

Anyone whose personal data we process can request information about the processing of their personal data and access to such data. In cases where requests made by the data subject are manifestly unfounded or disproportionate, in particular because the requests are repeated, DZS is entitled to charge a reasonable fee for the provision of information on the data subject's personal data processed, not exceeding the costs necessary to provide the information. A request may be refused for the same reasons.

If you discover or believe that your personal data are being processed in violation of the principles assuring the protection of your private and personal life or in violation of the law, or that any of your personal data processed by us are incorrect or incomplete, you have the opportunity to request an explanation and, in particular, to request that we remedy the situation, i.e. rectify or supplement your personal data.

In specified cases where your personal data are processed in the legitimate interest of DZS, you may also exercise your right to object to the processing, in which cases, unless prevented by another legal title, we will terminate the respective processing operation. If you have granted your consent to processing, you may withdraw it at any time.

To make a request, please contact us through the established DZS communication channels. After your identity as the applicant has been proven as prescribed by law, we will inform you that your application will be processed in accordance with the relevant legal requirements within the statutory timelimit.

If you wish to contact us with a complaint or suggestion about how we have processed your personal data, please contact us via data box tj8vfp3 or in writing to the Czech National Agency for International Education and Research, Na Poříčí 1035/4, 110 00 Prague 1. Your complaint will be forwarded to the responsible DZS staff member, who will then deal with it and work with you to resolve it, including by forwarding the complaint to the controller for the attention of the administrator to the hands of the MoEYS data protection officer. If you still believe that your personal data has not been treated reasonably under the law, you may contact the Data Protection Authority.
